

FREE Attendee Prize Program

Northern California Facilities Expo and Managing Green Buildings would like to offer you a chance to gain FREE exposure at the show!

How the Program Works:

- You provide a prize to be given away by show management on the show floor.
- Show management promotes your company, booth number and prize to all pre-registered and prospective attendees through a variety of different mediums.
- Show management will announce your company, booth number and prize over the PA system at the show.
- Attendees will register to win your prize at the front of the show floor and show management will collect names and draw for the winner.
- The winner of your prize will be brought over to your booth by show management to claim their prize.
